

Karen Morath Speaker, Consultant, Writer.

M Power managing director Karen Morath speaks and runs workshops and training sessions on a variety of topics centred on individual and organisational effectiveness.

Her upbeat and engaging style means her presentations are interactive and enjoyable without crossing the line into 'ra ra' motivational sessions.

She uses humorous anecdotes and frighteningly real observations of human and organisational behaviour to inform, inspire and entertain.

Keynote addresses can be customised to suit client need or clients choose from M Power's menu of popular topics:

Public Relations

- 'Doing good things and telling people about them - making Public Relations work for you'
- 'Perception isn't everything, except when it's wrong. Public relations 101 thru 606'

Life Balance/Empowerment

- 'Living your life your way - life can't be all palm trees and margaritas but there are worse game plans'
- 'How to deal with pomposity, condescension and bad manners (and other mental problems)'

Organisational Productivity/ Customer Service

- 'Getting what you need, but first, what is that?'
- 'Prescriptions are for legal drugs only. The organisational perils of believing there is ever 'one way' to do anything.'
- 'Getting customer-centric, service-oriented and putting the customer first. Cliché your way to making more money in your business.'
- 'Change versus God. Is your organisation prepared to gamble on this one?'

Decision Making

- 'The trade-off approach to making decisions that get you what you need and where you need to go'

Consulting

- 'Trading on the stereotype - why consultants must globe travel, bar graze and read Woman's Day'
- 'It's the attitude that makes the difference - working from home and dreaming your dreams.'

To enquire or to book Karen Morath please contact M Power on 03 9817 4111 or email@mpowercct.com